DPE/21(2)/2016-Survey
Date: 13th June, 2016

Dear Chief Executive

Kindly refer to my D.O. letter (copy enclosed) of even number dated 20th May, 2016 regarding training programmes to be organized by Department of Public Enterprises (DPE) at various Centers of Excellence during the year 2016-17 under Research Development and Consultancy (RDC) Scheme. In the aforesaid letter, it was mentioned that Central Public Sector Enterprises (CPSEs) send nominations of their executives to the institutes after taking approval of Secretary of Department.

2. It has now been decided that Chief Executive of CPSE can nominate their executives directly to institutes. Since very limited seats are available, nominations of executives will be accepted by the institutes on first-come-first serve basis. It is therefore requested that early action may be taken by you for nomination of executives of CPSEs.

3. For further clarification Shri S. V. Pratap, Director may be contacted at 011-24363066.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

DPE/21(2)/2016-Survey
Date: 20th May, 2016

Dear
Chief Executive

The Department of Public Enterprises (DPE), Government of India has been organizing training programmes on various topics for capacity building of State Level Public Enterprises (SLPEs) and Central Public Sector Enterprises (CPSEs).

1. I am happy to inform you that in this year too DPE has planned to organize 9 training programmes at premier institutes such as IIM, IIT, IIPA etc. The list of training programmes to be organized by DPE during the year 2016-17 for the executives of SLPEs and CPSEs is attached.
2. You are requested to nominate senior officers of your enterprises, maximum two for a programme, for the training programmes with the approval of your department's Secretary. The nomination may be sent directly to institutes. The content details are given in the list.
3. The entire cost of training including boarding, lodging and other training costs will be met by the Government of India. The CPSEs nominating trainees are expected to meet the travel expenses of the trainees.
4. Any clarification, if required, Shri S. V. Pratap, Director may be contacted at 011-24363066.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,
